Abstract

Axel is a monster truck who leaves the smooth roads in the city to conquer the rough terrain of the rocky, muddy mountains. He has lots of fun and makes lots of cool noises as he does! Axel catches a falling rock and brings it to the dump, makes a pit stop, and races back to town. He may be small compared to other trucks like dump trucks, but he is mighty!

My Review: Munchkin loved Axel the Truck: Beach Race so I tracked this one down for him as well (wasn't as easy to find as Beach Race was). This is a great pre-level beginning reader, sim Axel the Truck is one of the lesser known entries on the "My First I Can Read" shelf, and I took a flyer on the first two books sight unseen. The first book, ("Beach Race"), is the story of a little monster truck who goes "Vroom", goes fast and gets muddy a lot. It's cheerful and brightly colored. Each page has about two sentences of five words each. Things like, "Axel races the big trucks." The second book is virtually identical to the first, except this time Axel bounces around on a rocky trail road, which is actually pretty cool. Both books went
