Critical Essay: How to Write a Critical Analysis. Sep 19, 2018. Essay Writing Guides. Have you ever read an article and thought to yourself: "I disagree with this writer; I think they are biased." In a critical analysis essay, the thesis statement is usually your reaction to the source that you have analyzed. As noted before, your opinion is subjective; expect it to be challenged in the future. However, if you can articulate your personal opinion carefully and thoroughly, the reader will trust you. A critical essay on a book, for example, might focus on the tone and how that influences the meaning of the book overall and would use quotations from the book to support the thesis. This type of paper requires careful planning and writing, but is often a creative way to engage with a subject that you are interested in and can be very rewarding!

Steps. Part 1 of 4: Preparing to Write a Critical Essay. A critical essay or review begins with an analysis or exposition of the reading, article-by-article, book by book. Each analysis should include the following points:
