My kids have always loved rice krispie treats and this book offered variations that were fun and unusual for all sorts of holidays. And the peanut candy reminds me the stuff my grandmother used to make, only this version is easier than I remembered it to be. This book is so easy and the recipes are great. I have other candy making books but this one has some of the better recipes. The Torrone variation of the nougat recipe on page 158 is so good and easy to make . It is like the imported Italian Torrone. Do not miss out on this book.
