Soon he knew more than his teacher. He wrote to a college to enroll and they accepted him, but when they found out he was black, they told him he couldn't attend. After five more years, when he was 30 years old, he was accepted at a college in Iowa. He did so well, his teacher helped him to get a transfer to Iowa State College where he studied botany. He learned about plants and farming. He became the best botany student on campus. Dunn Library leads Simpson College in the development of a confident information literate community for a journey of life-long learning. The library was completed in 1964 and named in honor of Rex. A Dunn, a Simpson alumnus. Collections include books, journals, scores, DVDs and CDs, e-books, e-journals and a multitude of e-resources available to our students. Dunn features group study rooms, individual carrels and comfy chairs and couches. The Research Assistance Center, computer lab and the Edwards Center (EMERGE) are on the first floor. Our archives include the George Washington Carver Collection and information about the Lane Sisters from their time at Simpson. Archives & Special Collections. Library facilities.
