Impact of Administration’s Economic Proposals on Programs Under the Jurisdiction of the Education and Labor Committee Hearing (Statement and Testimony of Shirley Chisholm)

Abstract
Hearings before the Committee on Education and Labor, House of Representatives. Washington, DC, March 24-26, 31; April 1, 2, 6, 29; May 19, 20, 1981. Excerpted statement and testimony of Shirley Chisholm.
The Education and Labor Committee's purpose is to ensure that Americans' needs are addressed so that students and workers may move forward in a changing school system and a competitive global economy. The committee and its five subcommittees oversee education and workforce programs that affect all Americans, from early learning through secondary education, from job training through retirement. The following education issues are under the jurisdiction of the Education and Labor Committee: Education. The Committee on Education and Labor oversees federal programs and initiatives dealing with education at all levels—from preschool through high school to higher education and continuing education. These include Committee on Education and Labor. Impact of Administration's Economic Proposals on Programs Under the Jurisdiction of the Education and Labor Committee. March 24-26, 31, April 1, 2, 6, 29, May 19, 20, 1981. (Statement of Shirley Chisholm, p. 792-802). Collections. Chisholm, Shirley (D-NY). The impact of the crisis on education. Public financing of education in OECD countries. While the long-term impact of the crisis is uncertain, the pandemic may affect public spending on education as funds are diverted into the health sector and the economy. 11% of public. The slowdown of economic growth associated with the spread of the virus may affect the availability of public funding for education in OECD and partner countries, as tax income declines and emergency funds are funnelled into supporting increasing healthcare and welfare costs. Figure 1. Total public expenditure on education as a percentage of total government expenditure (2017) Primary to tertiary education.